

The Second Festival of Spring

World Healing Ceremony

The LEGEND OF WESAK read by Florence Riggs

Tuesday May 29, 2017 6:55 to 8:45p.m.

Florence Riggs Kabbalah Bach

Join us for this dramatic reading of the Legend of Wesak by Florence Riggs & the Annual Journey to the Sacred Valley.

Kabbalah creates music using a wide variety of Tibetan singing bowls, gong, tingshaws, chimes and bells, along with free form lyrical vocals and overtone singing. She is the facilitator of powerful sound healing workshops.

The Wesak Festival is the 2nd of the three Festivals of spring. It is a Buddhist ceremony that honors the birthday, day of enlightenment, and day of death of Siddhartha Gautama Buddha. For years, we have been celebrating the legendary ceremony that occurs in the Himalayas each year, when the Buddha comes back to Earth from his lofty cosmic home, and joins with his brother, the Christ and other masters, saints, adepts, and initiates to bless the Earth. This year we experience the tale of time and the prayer of a people.
